

AEROEXPO RELEASES NEW ONLINE MAGAZINE

May 22, 2018, Marseilles

The online B2B platform AeroExpo launches its online magazine, AeroExpo e-magazine, a free online publication dedicated to the world of aeronautics.

AeroExpo e-magazine will cover engaging, conversation-starting topics relevant to today's world. The e-magazine will be published throughout May, July, September and November 2018.

More Than Just an E-Magazine, a Source of Innovation and Inspiration

AeroExpo e-magazine aims to be a source of inspiration and information for both professionals and aficionados in the field. Prepare for take-off in this first issue of the e-magazine with articles on aircrafts, airports and drone fields, electric planes and an interview of Volocopter, a flying taxi that will soon operate in Dubai.

Don't Miss Out in the World of Aeronautics

AeroExpo e-magazine is always at the forefront of innovations at trade shows. The e-magazine will keep readers updated on important dates and events such as:

- ILA BERLIN trade show — This is where we shot our video "CleanSkies" about cleaner aviation which includes an interview with Boeing and Pratt & Whitney.
- Aircraft Interiors Expo — We will explore the new plane seats for the economy & business class.

Also, keep an eye out for future articles on the Farnborough International Airshow and Commercial UAV Expo.

Easy and Simple to Subscribe

Readers can stay updated by subscribing directly online on AeroExpo e-magazine to receive the publication directly in their inbox once released. AeroExpo e-magazine is also accessible through the AeroExpo website portal.
